

BIRCHALL

A family tradition since 1872

Birchall's award winning black teas are sourced exclusively from across East Africa, whilst the finest ingredients for their beautifully balanced fruit and herbal blends are sourced from around the world.

Krogab are pleased to announce that we are now distributors of Birchall Tea, a family-owned London Tea Company with roots back to India where Captain Birchall George Graham was posted as an officer with the Duke of Wellington Regiment. He later returned to develop his tea plantation and create some of the finest teas in the world.

Please contact us to find out more about our tea range and schedule your complimentary tea sampling. A great café experience is more than just about the coffee, so why not try these refreshing teas in your café or coffee bar, or indeed to enhance your in-room and conferencing tea offer.
